ABSENT:

1. Call to order:

Mayor Wyman Williams called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m.

2. Discussion and Possible Action on a Resolution declaring the results of the May 2, 2020 General Election and Issuing a Certificate of Election to Newly Elected Council Member, Anthony Henry, Place One (1).

City Secretary Molly Jacobsen reminded the Council that in January of 2020, the Council ordered the May 2, 2020 General Election for Places One (1) and Three (3). Candidate Anthony Henry ran unopposed for Place One (1) and Candidate Stephanie Muller ran unopposed for Place Three (3), and thus the Council subsequently cancelled the election in February of 2020 after the conclusion of the filing period. Place One (1) was formerly held by Mrs. Jean Klaus.

Mayor Wyman Williams said, "Mrs. Jean Klaus has served faithfully on the Commerce City Council since May of 2013. During her time on council, she has served as Ex Officio of the Commerce Economic Development Corporation and Ex Officio of the Beautification Commission. She is a member of Rotary, Louise Drake Garden Club and Coterie Club. Jean has spent many years dedicating her time and energy to bettering her City and community. We are so grateful for her service, and know that Ms. Klaus will continue to serve her community for many, many years to come." The Council thanked Jean for her service on the Commerce City Council since 2013.

City Secretary Molly Jacobsen administered the Oath of Office to newly elected Council Member, Anthony Henry.
